FOUNDATION OF NACE PRESENTS THE 2014 TIMOTHY SY LAM AND PATTI J. SHOCK EDUCATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP TO TABATHA CANTRELL

COLUMBIA, MD – SEPTEMBER 8, 2014 – The Foundation of the National Association for Catering and Events presented the 2014 Timothy S Y Lam and Patti J Shock Educational Scholarship to Tabatha Cantrell, of Landrum, SC.

Cantrell is the events coordinator for the Cliffs of Glassy, a residential golf course community. The scholarship awards her enrollment in the Meeting and Event Certificate Program at The International School of Hospitality (TISOH).

Developed and taught by Certified Professionals in Catering and Events (CPCEs), the 45-hour course gives students a deep dive into hands-on practical learning. The program covers on-premise and off-premise catering, contracts and negotiations, using social media, current issues, and so much more.

“Many people enter the catering and events industry as a second career or because they have the basic skills and the passion for this industry,” said Timothy Lam, Executive Director of TISOH. “Our program enhances their career with an additional layer of training so that they can evolve into true professionals. We are delighted that Tabatha will be participating in our program.”
